Client-Centered Core Values

- Respect Individual differences, identities, and aspirations.
- Interact with empathy and compassion.
- Provide equitable access to oral and written information.
- Provide services that promote independence and full community participation.
- Partner with clients to set goals and shape services.
- Seeking client feedback to drive continuous program improvement