

MIAMI LIGHTHOUSE FOR THE BLIND TO HOST ANNUAL HOLIDAY TRADITION WITH BEEPING EASTER EGG HUNT ON APRIL 17

WHAT: Hop into holiday fun this Easter with Miami Lighthouse for the Blind and Visually Impaired, who is hosting their Annual Beeping Easter Egg Hunt on April 17th in their Miami Lighthouse Academy Playground.

Students will search for colorful beeping eggs assembled by the South Florida Police Benevolent Association and Miami-Dade Sheriff's Office Bomb Squad and hidden by the Easter Bunny.

"The South Florida Police Benevolent Association along with the Miami-Dade Sheriff's Office Bomb Squad is proud to sponsor, help assemble, and make sure all the beeping eggs are fully functional so early learners and elementary school students in the Miami Lighthouse Academy can celebrate the joy of finding Easter eggs," said Steadman Stahl, President of the South Florida PBA.

Virginia Jacko, President and CEO of Miami Lighthouse, said, "The sounds emitted by the eggs enable our blind and visually impaired children to locate them by listening, reinforcing Miami Lighthouse's mission that 'It's possible to see without sight™.'"

In support of Miami Lighthouse's annual Easter Egg Hunt that brings the joyous holiday festivities to the blind and visually impaired community, the South Florida Police Benevolent Association and the Miami-Dade Sheriff's Office Bomb Squad will also distribute Easter baskets with candy and bring a police robot for Miami Lighthouse Academy students to interact with during the event.
