VISUALLY IMPAIRED TEENS FROM DADE AND BROWARD TO SHARE SENSORY
EXPERIENCE AT FORT LAUDERDALE ANTIQUE CAR MUSEUM

Teens will wear white gloves to take in vintage automobiles through touch

WHAT: Forty blind and visually impaired teenagers from Miami Lighthouse for the Blind and Lighthouse of Broward will visit the Fort Lauderdale Antique Car Museum to share a sensory experience at the largest collection of vintage Packard cars and historical memorabilia from 1900 on. In addition to a vast number of beautifully restored vehicles, the teens will encounter an array of hood ornaments, old gas station signs, carburetors, gear shifts and other classic auto mementoes.

WHERE: Fort Lauderdale Antique Car Museum
1527 Southwest First Avenue
Fort Lauderdale, Florida 33315

WHEN: Monday, July 30, 2018
Beginning at 10:30 a.m.

NOTE TO EDITORS: Media are invited to cover this visit and interview participants from Miami Lighthouse for the Blind and Visually Impaired and Broward Lighthouse for the Blind.
